Woods Humane Society's Daphne Fahsing Spay/Neuter Clinic Celebrates One Year Anniversary

(SLO, CA, 11/5/2019) Woods Humane Society is celebrating the one year anniversary of the Daphne Fahsing Spay/Neuter Clinic located at Woods North County in Atascadero. Construction completed on the new low-cost clinic in October of 2018 with the first surgeries taking place in November.

Over the last twelve months, the Daphne Fahsing Spay/Neuter Clinic has performed 2,932 spay/neuter surgeries for north county dogs and cats. The clinic's ambitious first year goal was set at 2,500 surgeries. Wood's Humane Society's North County clinic primarily serves pet owners from Atascadero to Paso Robles...but is available for anyone throughout the county to utilize. Aside from assisting county residents with their owned animals, the low-cost clinic also provides services to communities and feral cats through ongoing partnerships with Paws Cause and The Feline Network of the Central Coast. Additionally, Woods Humane Society has opened the doors of the clinic for low-cost vaccination clinics on the fourth Saturday of every month.

"A pillar of Woods Humane Society's mission is to improve the welfare of animals through accessible and affordable spay/neuter services the Daphne Fahsing Spay/Neuter Clinic is dedicated to supporting this ongoing endeavor. The more animals we alter directly translates into the more lives Woods can save.” – states Dr. Leslie Sklena, Woods Humane Society’s Director of Veterinary Services. “I am proud of the work that our team has done and we are truly grateful for all of the support provided by our central coast community and the City of Atascadero.”

Woods Humane Society’s Daphne Fahsing Spay/Neuter Clinic provides low-cost sterilization surgeries 4 days per week and hosts low-cost vaccination clinics the fourth Saturday of each month. Visit <http://www.spayslocounty.org> to schedule your pet’s surgery and find more information.
